"With reference to our conversation on the subject of promotions to Messrs. B. Venkateschar and C.R. Narayana Rao, I have already strongly recommended their promotion in recognition of the excellent work done by them, which has brough credit to the University, and their just claims on other grounds which should no longer be deferred.

Mr. B. Venkataschar has rendered 23 years' service and may legitimately expect to reach the grade Rs.500-50-1,000 so as to qualify for retiring pension on the maximum of the grade. His sterling worth is recognised on all hands and his own University should not be tardy in this matter.

If, however, it is not possible just now, from financial considerations, to place him in the grade 500-50-1.000, I would strongly recommend that he be given Rs.700/- the maximum of his present grade. I would also recommend that Mr. C.R. Narayana Rao, who is doing original work, and who pas put in 15 years' service, be given Rs.610/- in his own grade.(400-700).

As regards the raising of the increment in the grade Rs.500-30-700 from Rs.30/- to Rs..50/-, I think I need not add to what I have urged before, as to the necessity of this enhancement. I am glad to find that Government have recognised this in the case of Dr. Paul Chinappa by fixing his annual increment at Rs.40/- in place of Rs.30/-. I need not add that a smaller increment in the case of the University professors (including men like Messrs. Venkataschar and Narayana Rao who have rendered indubitably higher work and are in reality senior to Dr. Chinappa) would be keenly felt as an unmerited slur which was certainly not meant.

I would again press on the Government the necessity of raising the annual increment from Rs.30/- to Rs..50/-"

(b) All cases sent to the Financial Secretary under this rule should be treated as immediate and returned to the Department concerned within three days of receipt.

Submitted to His Highness.

Flag A. The Vice-Chancellor of the Mysore University has submitted a special recommendation on behalf of Messrs. B. Venkatesachar and C.R.Narayana Rao, Professors in grade Rs.400-30-700 in the Central College. He recommends that Mr.Venkatesachar may be placed in grade Rs.500-50-1000 or if this is not possible that he may at least be given the maximum of his present grade. As regards Mr. Narayana Rao the recommendation is that he may be given three advance increments so as to raise his pay to Rs.610.

The question was considered in Council on the 11th and the 18th instant. The Vice-Chancellor recommends special treatment for these two officers on the ground of their having done original research work. It was felt, however, that in the absence of a general scheme for the encouragement and recognition of research work it was not expedient to take up individual cases. As regards the grant of advance increments it is also difficult to sanction these without leading to similar claims being made by other professors in the same grade, such as, Mr.M.G. Srinivasa Rao and Dr. Sampathkumaran.

Flags C+D Mr. Venkatesachar's pay was raised from Rs.450 to 500 in July 192 to Rs.550 in July 1923 and Rs.580 in July 1924. Mr. Narayana Rao's pay like that of Mr. M.G. Srinivasa Rao and Dr. Sampathkumaran was raised to Flags C+D. Rs.450 in July 1922, Rs.490 in July 1923 and Rs.520 in July 1924. So long 7l.E ago as 1920 the University had recommended Mr. Venkatesachar and Mr. M.G Srinivasa Rao for the grade of Rs.500-50-1000. It was however not possible to sanction this as well as various other recommendations on behalf 7l.F. of other professors as explained in my ~~Submission~~ final Note of the 3rd ~~July~~ January 1922, in Education file No.149-20.

G. On a consideration of all these circumstances it was resolved that nothing special can be done for Mr. Narayana Rao at present and that Mr. Venkatesachar may be appointed to act in the grade Rs.500-50-1000 vice Mr. M.T. Narain Iyengar proceeding on leave and given Rs.600 in that grade.

The appointment of Mr. K.S.K. Iyengar in place of Mr.M.T. Narain Iyengar as recommended in another file will then be against Mr. Venka-
